Grace M. Drom Passes away At Brookfield, Ill.

Services for Assistant Cashier of State Bank Held Here Monday

Miss Grace Marie Drom, ill since last February, passed away Saturday at the home of a brother, Edwin Drom, in Brookfield, Ill., just a week before her birthday anniversary.

She was born in Antioch Dec. 11, 1902, and was the daughter of Maud and Wallace Drom.

Survivors include her brother, her father, who lives in Polo, Ill., and two sisters, Mrs. Anna Nielsen of Antioch and Mrs. Margaret Donaldson of Polo.

Until the time of her illness, Miss Drom was assistant cashier at the State Bank of Antioch.

She was a past matron of Antioch Chapter No. 428, Order of Eastern Star, a member of the Business and Professional Women's club of Antioch, and was held in high regard by her business associates and by a host of friends.

The Rev. Warren C. Henslee officiated at the services Monday afternoon in the Strang Funeral home. Interment was in Liberty Corners cemetery.

. The. Observer

Grandpa Pvt. Raleigh Martin, Chicago, was inducted into the army two weeks ago and is now stationed at Ft. Sheridan. His granddaughter is four months old.

"My daughter was pretty surprised about my going into the army," Pvt. Martin said. "I didn't tell the draft board that I was a grandfather because I figured that they wouldn't take me when they saw that the index finger on my right hand was gone . . . but they did!"

Pvt. Martin is 35 years old.

Well, now we have two readers. Our call for the words of the "Lady Elgin" ballad brought responses from Alberta G. Strahan, and from "Be-wildered."

The version they sent in was substantially the same—

Lost on the Lady Elgin

Up from the poor man's cottage, forth from the mansion's door, sweeping across the water, echoing along the shore, caught by the morning breezes, borne on the evening gale, cometh the voice of mourning, a sad and mournful wail.

Chorus

Oh, 'tis the cry of children! Weeping for parents gone. Children who slept at evening, but orphans woke at dawn. Sisters for brothers weeping, husbands for missing wives, such were the ties discovered of those three hundred lives.

II

Staunch was that noble steamer, precious the freight she bore, gallantly she loosed her cable, a few short hours before. Grandly she swept her harbor, joyfully rang the bell, little she thought that morning would toll so sad a knell.

Chorus

Lost on the Lady Elgin, sleeping to wake no more, numbering about three hundred who failed to reach the shore.

"Cannot say what year this happened," comments Mrs. Strahan. Bewildered—

"And the next time, Ed, I hope I'll know enough to keep my big mouth."

—Aw, we don't mind.

We see where life goes on, war or no war. For instance—

London—British courts, which recently ruled that money saved by a woman in her housekeeping accounts belongs not to her but to her husband, dealt wives another jolt today. magistrate in Tonbridge, market-town southeast of London, ruled that a woman has the right to decide to enter his home, including the case before the bench

Pure Milk Association Donates "Party" Money To Legion Service Fund

Antioch local of the Pure Milk association, representing 74 members in the central and western part of Lake and Kenosha counties, and adjoining territory, has turned over the sum of $18.50 to the Antioch American Legion post for use in its Boys in Service or veterans' welfare projects. This sum was originally intended to apply toward the association's annual "feed." At their last meeting, however, the members voted to dispense with the party this year, and to turn the money over to the Legion, in endorsement of the fine work that organization has been doing.

Speaking on behalf of the Pure Milk local, H. A. Tillotson, secretary, said, "Although at present we are handicapped by a shortage of protein feeds, we are determined that the production of top-notch Grade A milk in this great dairy area will go on just the same."

News-of the Boys in Service

The following information was the subject of a somewhat more extended article in "The Prospector," published by the Student Publications, Ind., of the Texas College of Mines and Metallurgy at El Paso:

Pvt. Fred Hawkins, in stirring final match at the Valdesion Links Sunday afternoon, Nov. 21, annexed the Fort Bliss open golf championship with a 3-1 victory over Lt. Ben Parham. Hawkins, the sole ASTP entry, turned in 70 for one under par, while Parham shot 72. Many Mines golf enthusiasts were noted in the gallery.

Prior to his Army career, Hawkins reached the quarter-finals in the National Amateur Open Golf to rate among the nation's best.

His father, Fred, Sr., is the professional at the Chain O' Lakes course at Antioch.

The same issue (Nov. 27) also carried a front page story announcing that Hawkins had been elected vice-president of the all-Army staff to represent ASTP No. 3892 in future activities of the Astudent Association council.

It was stated that "The campaign was fraught with major political issues and company rivalry, all in the spirit of Army fun. Fred 'A 50-day growing season for corn' Hawkins was staunchly supported by loyal followers in Company A."

The following letter was "snatched" from an Antioch business man who made the mistake of letting us read it:

—Harmon General Hospital, Longview, Texas.

"Your enclosed clipping from the usually reliable News is not entirely with the realm of truth. I believe that I can state without fear of contradiction that they have been slightly misinformed. Whether or not Teas is a part of the U. S. A. is open to question—but it is an undeniable fact that Texas is definitely not "overseas"—being stationed here might conceivably be called "foreign service"—but nothing more! And so, I am forced to insist, and insist strongly, that I am not "overseas." The largest body of water that I have had to cross has been the Mississippi. I concede one tiny figment of truth to the entire article—I am across, or over, a body of water—but it's not the sea—only a river.

"Please instigate the appropriate means for clearing up this colossal error.—By the way, before squashing the story, please find out just where it was I was shipped to. It would be interesting to find out in just what theater of war I might have been stationed—just curious. The printed word in my mind has always been associated with truth—and I am almost tempted to believe that article—but it's not so.

"Glad to hear that you are having a bit of Southern weather—you deserved it. It sure is nice down here—the sun is warm and comfortable—just like a cozy fireplace filled with bright embers of slowly-burning logs."

—Capt. A. N. Berke

(Ed. Note: Sorry, Captain, but (Sh-h-h!) we can't tell you where you are supposed to be. It's a military secret, no doubt. We got our info. off one of those little govt. p. o. cards which arrived in the mail a couple of weeks back. However, an Antioch friend of yours got one letter back which he sent to you, with its envelope covered with 13 different forwarding addresses, including one N. Y. and one San Francisco APO. It was returned, probably, so it could be put in another envelope. One with more room on it.)

Eastern Star Has Impressive "All White" Installation

Mrs. Margaret Gaston and Ralph Kinrade Head New Officers

In an impressive open ceremonial conducted in the presence of a capacity attendance, Mrs. Margaret Gaston was installed last evening as worthy matron of Antioch Chapter No. 428, Order of Eastern Star, and Ralph Kinrade as worthy patron.

The retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Sophia Hennings, who has been in California for the past few weeks, was unable to return for the ceremony. In her place, Mrs. Adah Hachmeister, past worthy matron, introduced the installing officer, Mrs. Fern Lux, also a past worthy matron of Antioch chapter.

Joseph Horton is the retiring worthy patron.

White gowns were worn by the women taking their new stations last evening, and appointments at the stations and altar were all in white. Floral decorations and shoulder corsages and arm bouquets were in the Eastern Star colors.

Black sheer lace and iridescent pearls were worn by the installing matron. Mrs. Eleanor Micheli, installing marshal; Mrs. Myrtle Klass, installing chaplain; Mrs. Elizabeth Behler, soloist, and Miss Elizabeth Webb, in charge of flowers, were in blue. Mrs. Micheli, Mrs. Klass and Miss Webb are all past worthy matrons of Antioch chapter.

Mrs. Hachmeister, who will act as chaplain for the coming year, was in white. Acting as installing organist was Mrs. Alice Freeman, who will also serve as organist for the chapter during the coming year. Mrs. Freeman, a member of Hunter Town, Ind., chapter, was in black. Mrs. Elsa Ferry, Zion, instructor, wore bronze colored lace.

Official dress was also worn by the men taking part in the ceremonial. Robert Wilton, William Anderson of Highland Park, and Oscar Hachmeister, all of whom are past worthy patrons of the chapter, were the escorts. Arthur Laursen, worshipful master of Sequoit Lodge No. 827, A. F. and A. M., acted as color bearer and also gave the ode to the flag. Special music included a trombone solo by Ralph Trierer and a piano solo by Hay von Holwede, who also accompanied the soloists.

Past Patron Honored

A past worthy patron's pin was bestowed on Joseph Horton, the presentation on behalf of the chapter being made by Hachmeister.

A white gavel was the officers' gift to the new worthy matron.

Flowers were presented to the associate matron, Mrs. Helen Chapman, and to the worthy matron and installing officers. Richard Chapman is the new associate patron.

The roster of officers for the year includes: Selma Trierer, secretary; Esther Wilton, treasurer; Helen Carlson, conductress; Harriet Davis, associate conductress; Ada Hachmeister, chaplain; Sophia Hennings, marshal; Alice Freeman, organist.

Mac Kinrade, Adah; Mabel Solomon, Ruth; Myrtle Horton, Esther; Lucile LaPlant, Martha; Lillian Musch, Electa; Ida Osmond, warden; Martha Hunter, sentinel; Joseph Horton, color bearer.

A Christmas centerpiece of evergreen, cones and candles adorned the table in the dining room, where refreshments were served after the ceremony.

Those present from out-of-town included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neuman, Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Al Maier, Lake Villa, and visitors from Woodstock. The chapter is holding its regular meeting this evening.

No Outdoor Christmas Lights, Council Says

In keeping with War department requests, Antioch will have no street lights or outdoor Christmas lights of any kind this year, it was announced at the village council meeting Tuesday evening.

Arrangements were made for the purchase of candy for the children, according to the annual custom of the village and village council, and James Stearns was appointed chairman to supervise taking the candy to the various schools.

Schools which will receive the candy this year include Antioch Grade, Hickory, Oakland, Emmons, Channel Lake, Grass Lake and Miss West's school on North avenue.

WHICHEVER WINS, WE ALL LOSE!

Sequoit Masons Elect W. Solomon Worshipful Master

Walter Solomon was elected worshipful master of Sequoit chapter of the Masons at their annual election meeting Tuesday evening, to succeed Arthur Laursen.

Other officers elected were Elroy K. Anderson, senior warden; Joseph Horton, junior warden; Home LaPlant, senior deacon; Ray Winship, junior deacon; Frank Huber, secretary; Edmund Strang, treasurer, and Emil Lubkeman, tyler.

Plans for the coming months will be discussed at the next meeting of Sequoit chapter, on Tuesday, Dec. 21.

"Magic" Program Makes Hit With Students

December 7, 1943, a date to be remembered, will also be remembered here at A. T. H. S. as the day Ralph Pierce brought his master magician's show here.

He put the program on in two parts, one in the afternoon and one in the evening.

About 100 grade school children attended the program in the afternoon, and a few participated in this program.

The great attraction in the evening was the fashion show put on by the boys of the F. F. A.

LUCILLE RHYMER IS FEATURED IN RECITAL

Miss Lucille Rhymer, advanced piano student of Anna L. Wade, was featured in a piano recital given by several of Miss Wade's pupils Tuesday evening in the Woman's Club, Kenosha. Miss Rhymer, whose poise and talent won praise from the large audience attending, gave an exceptionally fine interpretation of a difficult Chopin "Fantaisie Impromptu."

Miss Lillian Vykruta, who is teaching in Oak Park, spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brook.

"Flu's" Ravages Strike Antioch Business Dist.

Five of Seven Williams Store Employees Stricken at Same Time

The epidemic of influenza and colds which has affected the lake shore cities during the past two weeks, has also spread over the Antioch community.

A number of persons employed in the various business concerns have been absent from one to several days.

Especially hard-hit was the Williams department store, with five of seven employees ill this week. Those absent are Albert Barnstable, Russell Barnstable, Mabel Brogan, Jennie Sanborn and Ruth Ferris. Mrs. Lilian Hand, who was assisting, became ill this morning.

Roger Williams and L. R. Van Patten are the only members of the regular staff who have been on duty. Mrs. Van Patten and Josephine Prosser are among those who have been substituting during the emergency.

Village Gossip All Clinical

A conversational tour of the main business section of the village would read like a clinical report of victims, ex-victims and victims-apparent of the flu.

It is believed, however, that the peak of the epidemic is past here. Residents of the community are being urged, however, to use care in securing a sufficient amount of rest, and to wear adequate clothing, and take all precautions to avoid catching the disease and to prevent relapses after recovery.

Antioch at present has the services of only two resident physicians. Dr. R. D. Williams, who is also health officer, and Dr. I. L. Breakstone. Drs. D. N. Deering, A. N. Berke and A. P. Bratude, M. D.'s, are all in service with the U. S. Army. Dr. W. W. Warner, veteran Antioch physician, passed away some time prior to the opening of hostilities. Recently, Dr. W. A. Biron, chiropractor, was called into the service of the Navy, and is stationed at Great Lakes.

Capt. Deering is at Camp Haan, Calif.; Capt. Berke, who was attached in turn to several units which have left for overseas service, is convalescing at Harmon General hospital, Longview, Texas, from an operation; Capt. Bratude is at McCloskey General Hospital, Temple, Texas.

Ah, for a Slice!

As of October 1, all commercially baked white bread must contain more thiamine, niacin, iron and riboflavin under the provisions of Food Distribution Order No. 1.

Thus the loaf has undergone a new dialectical juggling to assure consumers an adequate supply of wartime nutrients.

It's still, no doubt, a good loaf—if the governmental specifications are being lived up to by the "sponge" mixers—but wouldn't it be swell to go back to the good old days when you sat by the corner window in the kitchen on baking days impatiently waiting for Maw to open the oven door and draw out those six or eight loaves of Manna from Heaven?

Maw didn't know the chemical contents of the loaves—or what vitamins were absent or present, for that was before the days of synthetic living; but she did know the marvelous treat that one slice of a fresh loaf and the thick slice of unrationed country butter could create for a small boy's (or girl's) palate—or the spread might have been half a glass of blackberry jelly (remember, Maw?) that the errant lad had gathered in that vanished thicket just beyond that grove where the mourning doves had nested!

Well . . . even in these hectic days we can dream . . . can't we? . . . yes, we can dream and remember . . . and so across the years, we see Maw's face once more on baking day. That beautiful face (recall, George Hunter?) was a gleaming red . . . and beaming. Of course, earlier in the morning you knew that it was baking day, for there was the extra wood to fetch from the pile behind the summer kitchen. And somehow or other, no matter what the attractions may have been on other days, you always managed to squeeze into that kitchen snug behind the stove when the aromatic odor, stealing away from the oven, reached out into the vacant lot where you've been fashioning a Swiss Family Robinson retreat in the lower branches of a giant elm . . . the loaves . . . they are out of the oven now . . . Maw is wiping them quickly with a buttered cloth . . . she steps into the pantry for a moment . . . quickly you move with furtive step to touch those loaves and they are hot to touch. May is back now . . . and she is saying, "No, you have to wait 'till they cool."

But they never really cooled, Maw, you know that. And up the years still comes the fragrance of their odor . . . and that beam of light that lit your understanding face. The oven door is standing open. The last of its released fragrance sweeps into even the sitting room . . . you're having difficulty with the jelly glass top . . . imperishable memory of life! A remembrance which, because of its hallowedness fortifies us as we face the illusions—and illusiveness—of the meditative years. —Courtesy LaSalle (Ill.) County Ledger.

Some Good News for Them!

Often we tend to forget that our fighting men overseas get the unvarnished news from home through newspapers, magazines, and radio—and that they react to it just as we do. This is as it should be, for they are citizens, not militarists, at heart.

For too long the news from home has been disheartening—strikes, Washington squabbles, food crises, etc., etc. All the more urgent, then, that we promptly get to them now a large shipment of good news—on a subject uppermost in their minds: Postwar Jobs!

Forceful action to implement the re-employment of ex-servicemen has just been taken by the National Association of Manufacturers—representing the employers of about 80 per cent of workers employed in manufacturing industry.

Its board of directors in a resolution directed at all employers, small and large, both in and out of industry, urges that every effort be made at once to provide suitable jobs for our fighters who already are being honorably discharged for wounds or illness resulting from service.

Speaking specifically to "every personnel director, every foreman, every superintendent, every manager," the N. A. M. governing board points out that the jobs provided should take into account the veterans' disabilities and conform to their physical condition.

It must be realized, however, the directors emphasize, that "this objective cannot be obtained in full where rigid seniority rules prevail, without the patriotic and sympathetic cooperation of organized labor."

Immediate co-operation with governmental and private agencies in all problems related to the prompt securing of jobs for all released veterans" is recommended by its board to the N. A. M., which is planning a comprehensive panel study on the rehabilitation of wounded war veterans at the forthcoming War Congress of American Industry.

the Petersburg and Richmond R. R." Freeman Clow of Grayslake shipped a carload of hogs Monday evening as did Alfred Benwell and B. Amian.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sheehan of Loon Lake on Thanksgiving Day.

Among the 60 friends and schoolmates of Harvey Gaines, Bristol, who assembled at his home last Friday evening to help him celebrate his birthday were Genevieve Roblee, of Kenosha; Mary Newell, Russell; Jessie, Josie and Charles Loscher; Arthur Bloss, Fred Wood, Salem; Harvey Hockney, Antioch; Gertrude and Owney Hollenbeck, John Achen, Frank Upson and Will Van Lierc of Pleasant Prairie; Ida Riley, Ina and Ralph Cornwell, of South Bristol.

Singing Trapps Building House With Own Hands

Famous Family Finds Way To Beat Housing and Labor Shortage.

STOWE, VT.—In rolling green countryside in the shadow of Mount Mansfield, the world-famous singing Trapp family are beating the manpower and housing shortage by building a 20-room house stone by stone with their own hands.

With the two oldest boys in the army, Baron and Baroness Georg von Trapp, their seven daughters and a four-year-old son, Johannes, are hurrying the work to complete the house before the harsh Vermont winter sets in. It will be a replica of the snug Tyrolean manors niched in the Austrian Alps.

Women Also Help.

While slim Hedwig, dressed in the Tyrolean dirndl costume favored for all occasions by the family, mixes cement, and Agatha trundles it to the house site, the baroness, Martina and Johanna do the mason work with an aristocratic flourish and a democratic enjoyment in their own handiwork.

The Trapps came to America as refugees after the Nazis had gobbed Austria. The baron, who commanded the Austrian Mediterranean submarine fleet in the First World war, was requested by the Nazis to fly the Swastika from his ancestral castle. He demurred, said he possessed no flag and could not afford to buy one.

The Gestapo came through with dispatch, and presented him with the black Nazi hooked-cross against a silken banner background of red and white. The family immediately burned it. Baron Von Trapp explained to the Gestapo that the flag colors conflicted with the castle colors or scheme. At the same time the family prudently packed its bags and prepared for exile.

Find Happiness.

With none of the pomp or quiet service of their old-world home, the Trapps have found added happiness in serving themselves. In addition to carpentry, masonry and digging wells, the family is busily farming their 600-acre farm, eating the produce and marketing the surplus. They make their own butter and cheese and have a tempting cellar of home-canned farm products on hand to guard against winter and rationing.

The Trapps, who have appeared on concert stages throughout Europe and America to sing old church music and almost-forgotten folk melodies, plan to turn their Vermont estate into a "little Salzburg" to serve as a gathering place for all who love to hear and to make music. They hope to encourage the playing of the spinet, viola da gamba and recorder.

Plot to Smuggle Gold

By U-Boat Is Revealed

CHICAGO.—Harry Schaezel, a secret service agent, told how he sat in a New York hotel room for three days awaiting the arrival of a German submarine off the East coast which was to smuggle gold back to Germany.

Testifying at the federal trial of three men who are charged with buying gold for Germany, Mr. Schaezel said he posed as a mining magnate and slipped himself into the trio's operations as a "ringer" under the name of Harry Dexheimer.

Actual contact with German agents was not made because the submarine failed to appear, he said.

The three men are Elbridge G. Bates, 43, Chicago representative of a St. Louis electrical firm; Kurt Otto Schimkus, 36, German alien and metallurgist, and Frank S. Smith, 54, Lithuanian rare coin collector. They are on trial for violation of the trading-with-the-enemy act.

They were arrested last April by secret service and FBI agents after Smith had identified himself as an agent for a foreign government.

Touchdown Play' Is

Aid in Palermo's Fall

WITH THE AMERICAN SEVENTH ARMY IN SICILY.—An American force commander sent this message to Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton Jr., the American commander:

"Can we make a touchdown on our own initiative? Rush reply." Thirty minutes later the answer came back: "You have the ball. Go in touch down play."

With this go-ahead signal, the American armored column swung toward Palermo, the capital city.

Army Plans to Use

Plane to Kill Coyotes

EL PASO, TEXAS.—The News plane has been promised to use in eradicating sheep coyotes.

El Paso added: "Use of an plane was promised since mustangs are war necessities. Coyotes hunt by night and day, dogs will be taken ranches and start the chase and keep the marauders all daylight when the plane is for the kill. Plastic shotguns loaded with buckshot."

Planless Planners

HOW ESSENTIAL IS A BUREAUCRAT?

At the time when the Administration insists on drafting fathers for the armed services, Congressman Harness (R.), of Indiana, points out that there are 675,000 draft-age single and childless married men in civilian capacities in Government bureaus.

A subcommittee headed by Congressman Costello (D.), of California, was told that there are 1,033 single men and 1,144 married men of draft age in the Federal Security Agency alone. Secretary Ickes, the same committee was informed, is seeking 6,000 deferments in the Department of the Interior.

And we are supposed to have a manpower shortage!

BAD EGGS

According to reports from New York, more than half a million dozen eggs which the government purchased while housewives were unable to buy them, have become so ancient that even the famished would find them unpalatable, with the result that officials of the food distribution administration are about to pay somebody to take them off its hands.

Miss LaPorte's gown was made with a fitted brown velvet bodice and full gold taffeta skirt. Miss Peterson wore a dress similarly fashioned of royal blue velvet and taffeta. They both carried yellow roses and mums. Gilbert Peterson, the bride's brother, was best man and Frank Kamin and Joseph Philbin, U. S. N. A. M. 3/c also attended the bridegroom.

G. A. A. Commences Its Basketball Activities

The long awaited sport of basketball was started last week for the girls of the G. A. A.

As in past years the girls play on the days the boys do not occupy the gym.

So far the girls have every Friday and it is hoped that they will be able to have one other day.

There was quite a large turnout last Friday representing all four classes. The Juniors had the most representatives attending.

Many new up and coming players were spotted and the officers of the G. A. A. along with their sponsor, Miss Reynolds, hope to have a much larger turnout this coming Friday.

Eat Seaweed

Indians, thousands of years ago, believing that salt was a white man's dish which turned his hair gray and hastened death, gathered the "sea lettuce" and ate it to supply the salt they would not otherwise use on their food. Hawaiians chopped it up and ate it raw as a salad or baked it with meats. The Japanese have cultivated and eaten it for years, but the Hawaiians boast of more varieties. At least 75 edible kinds of seaweed grow in the waters around Hawaii.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Smashing Blows Against Enemy Mapped By Highest Allied Military Strategists; Wheat Subsidy Payments Established; 4-H Club Congress Marks Record Year

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Never had the rumor mills been so busy grinding out stories as in those days preceding the official announcement of the meeting of the heads of state of United States, Russia, Great Britain and China. First semi-official clearance on the announcement came through a story released by Reuters (British news agency) which indicated that these leaders were meeting in the Near East, Political problems of the final phase of the war in Europe and the subsequent peace were the main topics of discussion. A story out of Stockholm, Sweden, reported that President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and President Chiang Kai-shek of China conferred first in the shadows of Egypt's pyramids before proceeding to the discussions with Premier Stalin.

In the first conference the relationship of the three nations to the war in the Far East kept the leaders busy. But when Stalin and his staff entered the spotlight:

ITALY: Allies Gain

Rallying under Gen. Bernard Montgomery's cry of "On to Rome!" Britain's Eighth army smashed into the eastern anchor of the Germans' winter line in southern Italy, advancing under cover of heavy artillery and aerial bombardment.

Shaken by the fury of Montgomery's usual tactics of massing superior fire power on enemy positions and then moving forward after lengthy barrages, the German lines buckled, and the Eighth army took the whole of the high ridge overlooking the tiny Sangro river and its flat valley.

The Eighth army's drive focused on the Adriatic coastal port of Pescara, from whence a highway cuts across the Italian peninsula to Rome. By sweeping northward, the British also threatened to work to the rear of the Germans' mountain posts to the west, where Lieut. Gen. Mark Clark's Fifth army bucked against stiff defenses guarding the 85 mile road to Rome.

4-H:

Nation's Finest

Healthy, apple-cheeked young rural America met for the 22nd national 4-H Club congress in Chicago, there to hear that the club's 1,700,000 members had raised five million bushels of war garden produce, nine million poultry, 90,000 head of dairy cattle, 600,000 head of livestock, 12 million pounds of peanuts, soybeans and other legumes, and canned 15 million jars of products.

In addition to their production feats, the 800 delegates learned that during the last year, 4-H members sold or purchased more than $25,000,000 worth of war bonds and stamps and collected more than 300,000,000 pounds of scrap. Summerville, Georgia's, pretty 17-year-old Helen Louis Owings alone sold $69,000 in war bonds.

At the congress were 17-year-old Billy Sol Estes, Clyde, Texas, whose six years of 4-H work have netted him $28,739; and 18-year-old Geneva Duhm, who has collected $1,626, chiefly in products.

SOUTH PACIFIC: Bloody Fighting

The Gilberts ours after the bloodiest fighting in the marines' long history, attention was focused on other Jap outposts in the Pacific, including their great naval base of Truk in the Carolines to the northwest.

In New Guinea, Australian troops continued to beat their way through the bushy hills up the east coast, while on Bougainville in the Solomons, waves of bombers supported U. S. marines picking their way through the Japs' jungle strongholds.

On Bloody Tarawa after the marines' valiant victory, Admiral Chester Nimitz said: "I have learned more than I ever knew of what the Japs can do. I am highly impressed by the highly organized defense of this small island and the large number of troops they had on it."

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

JEPPS: The first used jeeps have been purchased by a Chicago second-hand truck dealer. He obtained 16 of the sturdy little cars by putting in his order early. He intends to resell them, asking that customers pledge to buy at least a thousand dollars worth of war bonds per jeep. Seven have already been sold, involving pledges to purchase some $50,000 worth of bonds.

WHISKY: Liquor commissions of Oregon and Washington—two states that sell spirituous liquors through state-operated stores—have been unable to purchase a stock of whisky lately. The two commissions decided to buy two Kentucky distilleries. The whisky will be bottled in Kentucky. Each state will obtain about 500,000 cases during the next 12 months.

RUSSIA: Keep Ukrainian Grip

Holding their grip on the western Ukraine, German forces struck back at the Russians to retake the vital rail hub of Korosten in their slow drive on Kiev.

Capture of Korosten gave the Germans their second important communications point in the region, the rail center of Zhitomir having previously fallen. Both centers are situated on Russia's last north-south rail line, and also command lines running west into prewar Poland.

As the Germans increased their pressure on the rich rural province of Kiev which they have always fancied, they pulled their lines in to the north, approximately 300,000 Nazis reportedly retiring from Gomel. As they fell back, the Reds tried futilely to seal off their escape corridor.

In the Crimea which commands the Black Sea, the Axis were reported withdrawing Rumanian troops, thousands already having been evacuated.

CIVILIAN SUPPLIES:

Picture Brightening

In a move which it deemed as protection against shortages of materials essential to the prosecution of the war, the army put huge stocks of surplus materials on sale, while the office of civilian requirements granted repair men larger allocations of metals.

Issuance of catalogs to guide manufacturers in bidding for the goods reveals that sales will include a variety of items ranging from hammers to buckles.

From the 830th army air force specialized depot in Memphis, Tenn., catalogs listed such valuable material as fuel pumps, refueling funnels, drain cans, lubricators, manual and hydraulic jacks, and precision tools for carpenters, plumbers and machinists.

Under the office of civilian requirements ruling, electricians, plumbers, blacksmiths, radio, upholstery and farm machinery repair shops are permitted to buy up to 20 tons of carbon and alloy steel, 500 pounds of copper and brass products, and 200 pounds of aluminum in certain forms. Once scarcer than a hen's tooth, copper wire will be available for limited use.

Lost on a dive-bombing attack on a Yangtze river port in China October 30, Michigan's former All-American halfback, Lieutenant Tom Harmon picked his way back to Allied lines from Jap dominated territory.

For Lieutenant Tom it was the second time that he had bobbed up after a flight crash. Last April, he bailed from a bomber disabled in a rain storm over tropical French New Guinea.

Slashing his way through the jungle, he met obliging natives who then guided him to a settlement.

COAL: Raise Prices

While southern operators balked at signing the new contract calling for a nine-hour day, with pay for 45 minutes travel time, Stabilization Director Fred Vinson authorized average increases of 17 cents a ton for bituminous and 62 cents a ton for anthracite coal to cover the extra wage costs.

Formulated by Interior Secretary Harold Ickes and United Mine Worker Chieftain John L. Lewis, the new pact was attacked by the southern operators as failing to provide eight hours of production in cases where more than 45 minutes are required for travel. Replying, Ickes said announcement of the new contract was followed by a record output of 12,700,000 tons in one week, tops for limited use.

Although the price increase on soft coal averages 17 cents a ton, actual costs vary from 10 cents in Alabama, parts of Georgia and Tennessee, and Utah and Montana, to 50 cents in Michigan and California and part of New Mexico.

WHEAT SUBSIDIES: Payments Set

To hold down the price of bread, government agencies moved in two directions, with the Defense Supplies corporation announcing wheat subsidy payments to millers and the OPA establishing flour ceilings.

For all wheat grown in the Pacific coast area, the DFS will pay 14 cents a bushel. Outside of the Pacific region, 16 cents per bushel will be paid on hard wheat, 5½ cents a bushel on soft wheat, and 6 cents a bushel on durum wheat.

As a basis for payment, DFS announced that millers must subtract the current market prices for wheat from the price used by OPA in figuring flour ceilings. Payments will be made to millers each month, with disbursements based on the rate in effect at the time the flour is sold.

Flour Ceilings

Under new OPA regulation, maximum prices were established for all kinds of wheat flour on the miller's level, with the family product ranging from $3.70 a hundred pounds in western Colorado to $5.23 in North Carolina.

Prices on hard wheat flour are highest in the Middle West producing section, with Iowa's ceilings on low and high protein output $3.31 and $3.38 per hundred pounds; Illinois, Wisconsin and northern Michigan, $3.34 and $3.54; and Minnesota, $3.34 and $3.54, plus a proportional rail rate from Minneapolis.

Delivered prices on cake flour and other soft wheat bakery flour milled in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin or Iowa were set at $3.67 and $3.77 a hundred pounds, plus the rail rate from Spokane.

In other states, prices vary from $4 to $4.90 for cake flour, and $3.10 and $3.31 for soft wheat bakery flour.

CANADA: To Resettle Vets

To give its returning soldiers the opportunity to get into productive enterprise after the war, the Canadian government will spend upwards of 400 million dollars to buy land and chattels to resell to vets at 50 per cent of total cost.

Under the Canadian Land Veterans Act, maximum cost of land and buildings is $4,800 and of chattels $1,200. Of the $8,000 outlay, the vet will subscribe a minimum of $480 or 10 per cent of the cost of land and buildings, then pays off the balance of $3,200, or two-thirds of the cost of land and buildings, at 3½ per cent interest.

Designed to accommodate 100,000 vets, plans call for confining full time farm operations to experienced hands, with other kinds of tradesmen allowed to purchase small homes with acreage outside of urban areas at a cost of $2,500 to $4,000.

WORLD RELIEF: U. S. Takes Lead

To the U. S. will go the lion's share of providing funds for the 2½ billion dollar United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration program adopted in meetings at Atlantic City, N. J.

Aim of the UNRRA under General Director Herbert Lehman of the U. S. is to feed and clothe the impoverished masses in countries wrested from the Axis; resettle people shifted to other localities by the Axis in their native lands, and to offer means for reconstructing farms and industry.

With unoccupied countries figured to contribute 1 per cent of their national income for the UNRRA work, the U. S. will advance approximately 1½ billion dollars; the United Kingdom, about 320 million dollars; and Canada 90 million dollars.

LEND-LEASE

Up to August 31, 1943, Australia has contributed goods and services valued at over a quarter billion dollars in reverse lend-lease to the United States. Much of this repayment is in form of food for U. S. soldiers stationed in and around Australia. A total of 146,298 tons of food and eight million clothing items were provided.

Other lend-lease goods included technical equipment, trucks, aircraft supplies, and communications supplies.

Because this Christmas will be so different

IN MILLIONS OF AMERICAN HEARTS, there will be little joy this Christmas, and little spirit of holiday celebration.

But there will be, we believe, a deep realization of the spiritual meaning of the Christmas day. There will be a realization of how blessed it would be—once again—to have "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

And there will be, in many hearts, a solemn resolve to punish those who have made a mockery of all the things that Christmas stands for . . . and so to bring back those things to a war-weary world.

As an expression of this kind of Christmas feeling, there are no finer or more meaningful gifts than War Bonds.

When you give War Bonds you are truly giving the "present with a future" . . . not only for the future of the one who receives your gift, but for the future of the world as well.

For, by buying and giving War Bonds you will bring Victory so much closer and help save the lives of clean, decent Americans . . . that more of them may come back to enjoy Christmas as Chriemmas should be.

Think about this when you're deciding what to give to those you hold most dear.

Think about it . . . and give War Bonds.

From Algeria, source of so many other interesting bits of news these days, comes word that at last an organization to fulfill a long-left need has been founded. We refer to the Waboes—the Women's Auxiliary of the Brush-Off club.

To go into tiresome details, it seems that the Brush-Off club consists of sad lads who have been dispensed with by gals who forgot to remember.
The Waboes are the comparable group of gals who were left behind, and we mean left, period. The proposed insignia for the new women's auxiliary is a teardrop splashing on a broken heart.

Capt. Howard Hammersley of Roanoke, Va., is founder of the Brush-Off Club. To Miss Irene M. Cozine of Santa Monica, Calif., is attributed the impetus for forming the auxiliary.
Hal Boyle, American newspaper correspondent, APO 512, New York, N.
Y., states that "If any forsaken maiden desiring to join up will write me, I will see that her application goes through the proper channels to Capt.
Hammersley. The captain also has suggested that applicants forward photographs of the sealaws who deserved them, to be posted on the club's mourners corner under the heading, 'here lie our departed loves.'
It might be a good idea if they send along their own pictures, too," said the captain.

Airline Networks
The network of airlines in the southern Americas is now 2½ times greater than in the United States.
Some 44 operating companies in this vast air transport system in Latin America have 750 scheduled stops, compared to 18 air carriers in the United States with 260 stops.

Small Wonder:
According to Swiss Patent No.
210973, the sodium salt of N, N'- bis(2-(4-chloro-2-isopropyl-5-methyl-phenoxyl)-5-sulfonyl) urea is said to afford protection against moths.
No wonder!
